

Detached bungalow, Talisman, Rosecroft Drive, Newport, which has scope for development had a guide price of £374,00 and was snapped up for £418,000 after 19 bids.

Five properties sold at auction

BUYERS were out in force again snapping up bargains at a Newport-based auction sale. The September sale, held by Paul Fosh Auctions, which is based in Lower dock Street, saw 85 per cent of the 83 properties listed sell for a total of £5.3m. The business' next online sale opens for bidding on Tuesday, October 19 at 12 noon. For more details visit www.paulfoshauctions.com.

A former Baptist Church on King Street, Abertillery, attracted 110 bids. It was listed with a guide price of £30,000 and eventually sold for £116,500.

This spacious, mid-terrace, two-bedroom home at 215 Caerleon Road, Newport had a guide price of £99,000 and sold for £145,000 after 95 bids.

A three-bedroom, semi-detached house at 17 Llwynu Road, Abergavenny, attracted three bids when it was listed for £190,000. It eventually sold for £210,000.

A three-bedroom, mid-terrace house at 7 Bristol Street, Maindee, Newport, which was listed with a guide price of £72,000 sold for £107,500 after attracting 65 bids.